Cantor: If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, Lord, who would survive?
(on 6) But with you is found forgiveness: for this we revere you.

Postfestive stichera - Tone 8

⑥

In your hu-man-i - ty you pre-sent - ed your-self to John in the Jor-dan, O Lord, al - though you did not leave your heav-en - ly throne. You were seat-ed with the Fa - ther, yet you were bap-tized for us. Since you are generous and you love us all, you have freed the world from sla-v'ry to the en - e - my.

Cantor: My soul is waiting for the Lord. I count on his word.
(on 5) My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak.

⑤

In your hu-man-i - ty you clothed your - self in the wa-ters of the Jor-dan, O Lord.

You were giv-en wit-ness from on high by the de-scent of the Spir - it; and the voice of the Father testi-fied that you are his Son. Now man - i - fest your-self to us and grant in - cor - rup - tion to our souls.

Cantor: Let the watchman count on daybreak,
(on 4) and Israel on the Lord.

O Lord, from all e - ter - ni - ty, you were be - got - ten in an unchangeable way from the Fa - ther. In lat - ter times you came and received the likeness of a serv - ant.
 As the Cre - a - tor you al - so re - newed our like - ness, for in your baptism you grant - ed in - cor - rup - tion to our souls.

Cantor: Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption,
(on 3) Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity.

Stichera of the Holy Martyr Polyeuctus - Tone 1

O Mar - tyr, Christ led you away from the error of i - dol - a - try and from the mire of the earth, just as Da - vid was led from the a-byss of pas - sion.

 For he mys - tic'ly placed your feet upon the rock of di-vine knowl - edge and grant - ed you a recog-ni - tion of him - self. Im - plore him that we may all be saved.

Cantor: Praise the Lord all the nations; Psalm 116 (on 2) acclaim him all you people.

Neither the love for your wife, nor the yearn-ing for your chil - dren nor your high rank, nor the wealth of posses-sions and rich - es shook your strength of soul away from the true faith; for your trust is in Christ, O bless-ed Po - ly - euc - tus.

Cantor: Strong is the love of the Lord for us;
 (on 1) he is faithful forever.

Be - fore the grace of your mar - tyr - dom, you tru - ly adorned your-self with right-eous deeds. Be-cause of them you were made wor - thy to be a faith - ful wit - ness of Christ; and you were de - vout - ly bap - tized in his death by your blood.

Cantor: Glory...

Doxastikon of the Postfeast - Tone 2

To - day the Creator of heav - en and earth ap - proach-es the Jor - dan Riv - er in the flesh; the One who is free from sin seeks to be bap - tized in or - der to cleanse the hu - man race from the er - rors of the en - e - my;
 the Mas - ter of all is baptized at the hand of the serv - ant in or - der to grant us the cleans-ing through wa - ter. There-fore let us cry out to him:

Cantor: Now and ever...

Troparion of Theophany - Tone 1

At your bap - tism in the Jor - dan, O Lord, wor - ship of the Trin - i - ty was re - vealed; for the Fa - ther's voice bore wit - ness to you, calling you his be - lov - ed Son, and the Spir - it in the form of a dove con - firmed the truth of these words. O Christ God, you ap - peared and enlightened the world. Glo - ry to you!
