

The Divine Liturgy of the Presanctified Gifts

celebrated on Wednesday in the Fourth Week of the Great Fast
March 2, 2005

The reading from Genesis tells of the drunkenness of Noah and how his three sons react to their father's behavior.

The reading from Proverbs, still using the "compare/contrast" style we heard last Friday, demonstrates how good and evil are received by the wise and by the foolish.

The Lamplighting Psalms

Psalm 140

Tone 4

O Lord, I have cried to you, hear me. Hear me, O Lord! O Lord, I have cried to you, hear me; re - ceive the voice of my pray'r when I call up - on you.
Hear me, O Lord! Let my pray'r ascend to you like in - cense and the lifting up of my hands like an eve-ning sac - ri - fice. Hear me, O Lord!

O Lord, set a guard before my mouth *
and set a seal on the door of my lips.

Let not my heart be inclined to evil, *
nor make excuses for sins I commit.

Let me never share in sinners' feasting. *
If a just man strikes or reproves me it is kindness but let the oil of the wicked not anoint my head. *

Let my prayer be ever against their malice.

The princes were thrown down by the side of the rock; *
then they understood that my words were kind.

As a millstone is shattered to pieces on the ground, *
so their bones were strewn at the mouth of the grave.

To you, Lord God, my eyes are turned; *
in you I take refuge; spare my soul!

From the trap they have laid for me keep me safe; *
keep me from the snares of those who do evil.

Let the wicked fall into the traps they have set * while I pursue my way *un*harmed.

With all my voice I cry to the Lord, *
with all my voice I entreat the Lord.

I pour out my trouble before him; *
I tell him all my distress while my spirit faints within me.

But you, O Lord, know my path. *
On the way where I shall walk they have hidden a snare to entrap me.

Look on my right and see: *
there is no one who takes my part.

I have no means of escape, *
not one who cares for my soul.

I cry to you, O Lord. *
I have said: "You are my refuge, all I have in the land of the living."

Listen, then, to my cry *
for I am in the depths of distress.

Rescue me from those who pursue me *
for they are stronger than I.

Bring my soul out of this prison *
and then I shall praise your name.

Around me the just will assemble *
because of your goodness to me.

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord; *
Lord, hear my voice!

Let your ears be attentive *
to the voice of my pleading.

If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, Lord, who would stand? *
But with you is found forgiveness: for this we revere you.

My soul is waiting for the Lord. I count on his word. *
My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak.

Cantor: Let the watchman count on daybreak
(on 4) and Israel on the Lord.

Tone 4

The fast which brings blessings has now run half its course. It is pleased with the days which have passed and proposes profit in those still to come. Striving for virtue produces even more good deeds. Therefore, let Christ, the giver of all good gifts, be pleased to hear our cry. You fasted and endured the Cross for us; allow us to partake of your divine Pascha blameless and to pass our lives in peace, properly praising you together with the Father and the Spir - it.

Cantor: Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption,
(on 3) Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity.
