

TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
2005

2 The holy bishop martyr Cyprian. He was originally a pagan magician, in league with evil spirits. He was converted by the words and example of St. Justina and became a bishop of the church. He was beheaded with Justina in Nicomedia. (258)

The holy martyr Justina, who was brought to faith in Christ and then brought that same faith to her whole family. She was martyred with bishop Cyprian in Nicomedia. (258)

The holy Andrew, fool for Christ. By birth a Slav, he was bought as a slave and brought to Constantinople during the reign of emperor Leo the Wise. He was a man beautiful in body and in soul, and was moved to adopt the asceticism of folly for Christ's sake. Feigning madness in the daytime and praying all night, he became a wonderworker in Constantinople. In the year 911, he entered into the rest of the Lord.
