Our holy father Pimen

Supplement for The Order of Vespers for Sundays after Pentecost, 2005

Psalm 140, Tone 3 (begins on page 48, stichera 10-4)

Cantor: (Tone 8) Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption, (on 3) Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity.

Stichera of our holy father Pimen - Tone 8

③

What shall we call you now, O Pi - men? A mod - el for monks, a work-er of heal - ings, mor - ti - fy - ing the passions with the scourge of tem - p'rance, a fel - low citizen with the angels and their con - fi - dant, a dwell - er in the heav-en - ly Cit - y, a home of the virtues and the adornment of the wil - der - ness. Pray to Christ our God to save our souls!

Cantor: Praise the Lord, all you nations, Psalm 116
(on 2) acclaim him all you peoples!

②

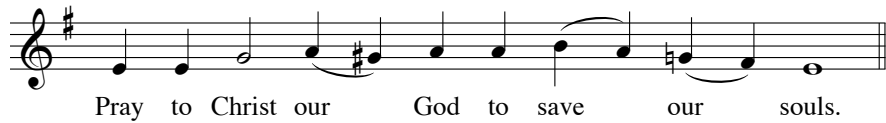

How can we de - scribe you now, O Pi - men? A cit - izen of the desert, a cultivator of ho - ly peace of soul, a tam - er of the passions, a guide for monks, a stream of teachings from the Ho-ly Spir - it, an ev - er-shin-ing torch of judg - ment, true won - der-work - er, heal - ing all ills.

Pray to Christ our God to save our souls.

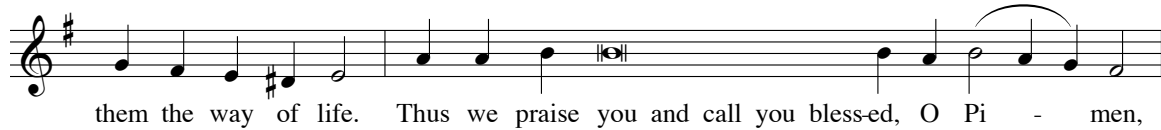

Cantor: Strong is the love of the Lord for us;
(on I) he is faithful forever.

Tru-ly you have been a lamp - stand, en-light-ening with its dis-cern-ing ra - diance

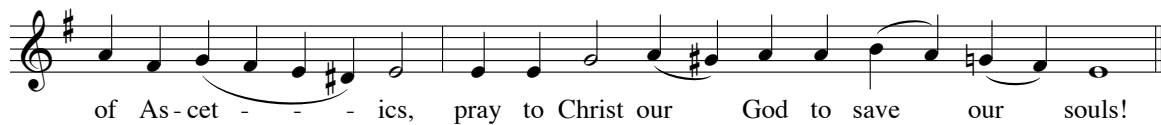

the souls who ap-proach you in faith. In your wis-dom, you show them the way of life. Thus we praise you and call you bless-ed, O Pi - men, as we cel - e - brate this ho - ly feast. Pride of the Fa - thers and Joy of As-cet - - - ics, pray to Christ our God to save our souls!
