Thirtieth Sunday after Pentecost

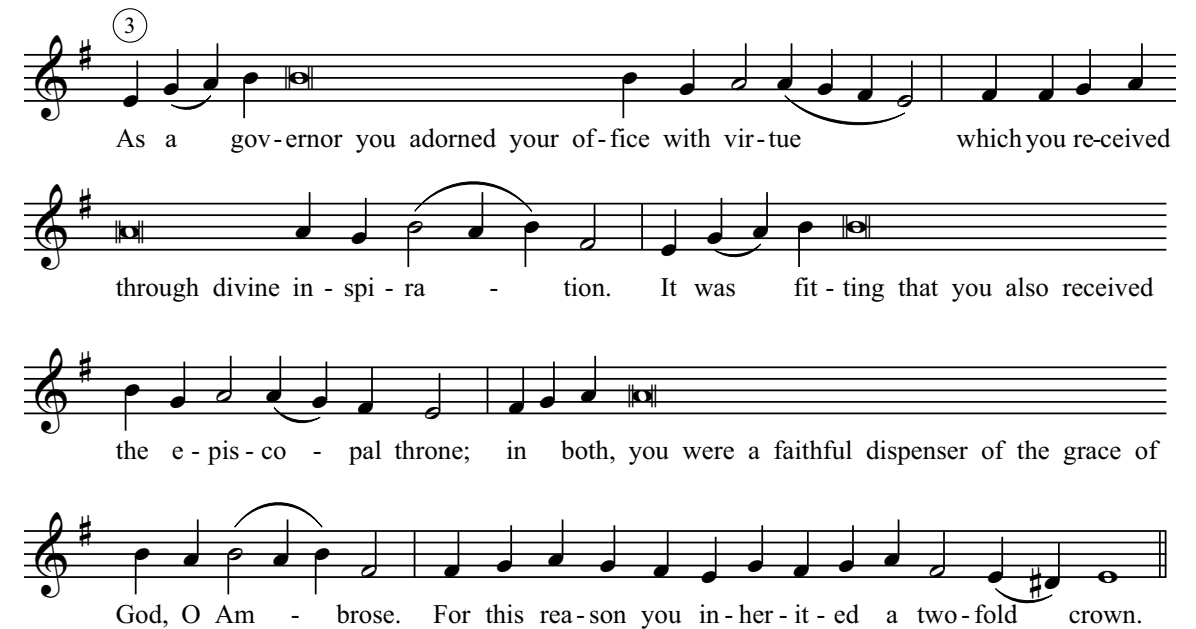

Our holy father Ambrose, Bishop of Milan, who on April 4th, on the holy night of Pascha, fell asleep in the Lord. His memory is celebrated today, on which (while still a catechumen) he undertook ruling the famous See of Milan in 373, while he was exercising the office of prefect of the city. A true pastor and teacher of the faithful, he exercised great charity toward all, defended strenuously the freedom of the Church and the doctrine of orthodox faith against the Arians. By his commentaries and his musical hymns, he piously catechized the people. (397)

Supplement for The Order of Vespers for Sundays after Pentecost, 2006

Tone of the Week: Tone 5 (begins on page 69), stichera 10-4

Cantor: (Tone 1) Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption, (on 3) Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity.

Stichera of our holy father Ambrose - Tone 1 podoben: Nebesnych činov

As a gov-ernor you adorned your of-fice with vir-tue which you re-ceived through divine in - spi - ra - tion. It was fit - ting that you also received the e - pis - co - pal throne; in both, you were a faithful dispenser of the grace of God, O Am - brose. For this rea-son you in - her - it - ed a two-fold crown.

Cantor: Praise the Lord, all you nations,
(on 2) acclaim him all you peoples!

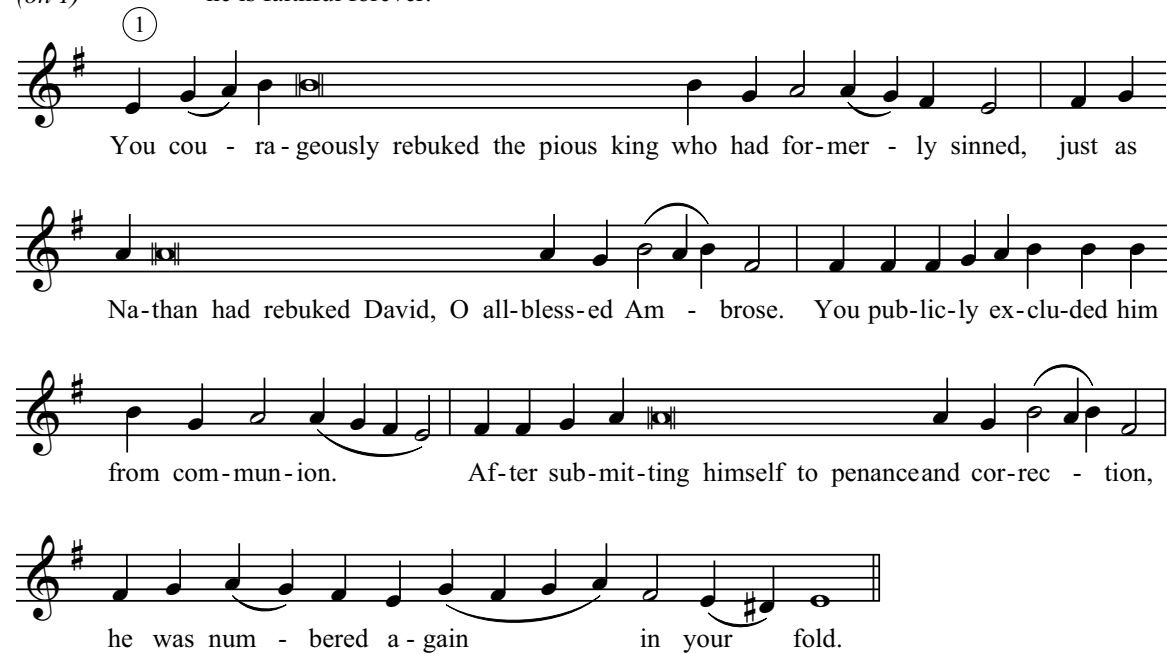

②

Through self - dis - cipline, sufferings, vig - ils, and fer - vent prayers, you cleansed your soul and bod - y, O wise in God. Hav - ing be - come a chosen ves - sel for Christ our God, you re - ceived di - vine gifts as did the a - pos - tles.

Cantor: Strong is the love of the Lord for us;
(on 1) he is faithful forever.

You cou - ra - geously rebuked the pious king who had for - mer - ly sinned, just as Na - than had rebuked David, O all - bless - ed Am - brose. You pub - lic - ly ex - clud - ed him from com - mun - ion. Af - ter sub - mit - ting himself to penance and cor - rec - tion, he was num - bered a - gain in your fold.

Cantor: (Tone 5) Glory... Now and ever...
