

Vesper Propers, July 4, 2010
Sixth Sunday after Pentecost

Our holy father Andrew of Jerusalem, archbishop of Crete, whose passing over is remembered this day at Erissus on the island of Lesbos. He was bishop of Gortyna, and sang--with singular art--praises to God by his prayers, hymns, and songs. He exalted the Virgin Mother of God, immaculate and assumed into heaven. (740)

Our venerable mother Martha, mother of St. Simeon the Venerable, on the Admirable Mountain in Syria. She was notable for following the ancient practice of rising at midnight for prayer, and gave help to the needy with great compassion by visiting the sick and the poor. (551)

Hat - ing the earth - ly domi - na - tion of the bo - dy, with pure tem - perament and a sim - ple heart, you held fast to the Lord, O wise fa - ther, and were shown to be a divinely-inspired instrument of the Com - fort - er, play - ing the psalm - o - dy of sal - va - tion for us.

Cantor:

My soul is waiting for the Lord. I count on his word.

(on 5)

My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak.
