

Vesper propers, November 7, 2010
Twenty-fourth Sunday after Pentecost

The holy thirty-three martyrs at Melitene. Hieron was a devout Christian who cared diligently for his blind mother, Stratonica. He was forcibly impressed into the army, where he refused to worship idols. He was brought before the local governor with thirty-two other local Christians. They went to their death singing the psalm, “Blessed are those undefiled in their way, who walk in the Law of the Lord.” (298)

Our venerable father Lazarus the Wonderworker, who fasted in the hills of Galilee. He left for the Holy Land on pilgrimage and became a monk of the monastery of St. Sabbas the Sanctified. After ten years, he settled in Galilee and lived as a stylite. (11th century)

Sunday aposticha in the Tone of the Week (Tone 7, p. 99), concluding with:

Cantor: (Tone 6) Glory...

Aposticha doxastikon of our venerable father Lazarus the Wonder-worker - Tone 6 samohlasen

O ven-er-a-ble fa-ther, the whole world is filled with the fame of your ho-ly deeds; through them, you have received the recompense of your la-bors in heav-en. You de-stroyed hordes of de-mons and have been united to the choirs of an-gels, whose pure lives you im-i-tat-ed.

Eu-týchius, Dorotheús, Cástri-cus, The-mé-li-us and Cláu-di-an.

Cantor: (Tone 6) Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption, (on 3) Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity.

Stichera of our venerable father Lazarus the Wonderworker - Tone 6 podoben: Vsju otloživše

Hav-ing com-plete-ly re-nounced the irra-tion-al pas-sions and sub-mit-ted the flesh to the spir-it. you be-came a mod-el of vir-tue, the joy of as-cet-ics, a sup-port for monks, the a-dorn-ment of the ho-ly fa-thers. Now that you reflect the ineffable splen-dor of the Cre-a-tor, you taste the beau-ties of hea-ven in your spir-it. Thus in our hymns and chants, we all cel-e-brate your ho-ly and sa-cred mem-o-ry.

Cantor: Praise the Lord, all you nations, Psalm 116
(on 2) acclaim him all you peoples!

②

Hav-ing cast off all ma-te-ri-al bur-dens to-gether with the pleas-ures of the flesh and all de-sire for earth-ly pos-ses-sions, you set out on the road to the ci-ti on high. You rose ef-fortlessly in your ascent to the heights of vir-tue, where you won the battle in a material body o-ver the bod-i-less en-e-my.
Thus, O fa-ther La-za-rus, you have joined the choirs of bodi-less an-gels where you in-ter-cede for our souls.

Cantor: Strong is the love of the Lord for us;
(on 1) he is faithful forever

①

Lov-ing the light, like John the luminary and E-li-jah, you ob-served still-ness in the mountains and ar-id des-erts, ev-er learn-ing divine ascent and excelling in the way of the vir-tues. There-fore, you at-tained your ul-timate desire, O all-wise one, and, re-joi-cing, stand before the thrice-radiant light of the Trin-i-ty; and di-rect-ly receiv-ing di-vine splen-dor, you pray with bold-ness on be-half of our souls.

Cantor: (Tone 5) Glory...

Doxastikon of our venerable father Lazarus the Wonder-worker - Tone 5 samohlasen

O ven-er-a-ble fa-ther, you gave no sleep to your eyes nor any re-pose to your eye-lids un-til you had freed your soul and bod-y of all pas-sions, to the point that you were prepared as a tabernacle for the Ho-ly Spir-it.
For Christ came to dwell in you to-gether with the Fa-ther. Hav-ing be-come
