

Vesper Propers, January 30, 2011
Thirty-sixth Sunday after Pentecost

THE THREE HOLY HIERARCHS: BASIL THE GREAT, GREGORY THE THEOLOGIAN, AND JOHN CHRYSOSTOM. All three of these saints have their own feast days. This celebration began in 1100 in the days of the Emperor Alexis Comnenus. A great quarrel arose in Constantinople as to which of these three was the greatest theologian. They appeared in a dream to then Patriarch John and told him that they were equal before God, and each had his special gifts and talents. John chose January 30 to commemorate all three of them together, and composed the office.

Supplement for The Order of Vespers for Sundays after Pentecost, 2006

Lamplighting Psalms in the Tone of the Week (Tone 3, p. 48), stichera 10-7.

Cantor: (Tone 4) If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, Lord, who would survive?
(on 6) But with you is found forgiveness: for this we revere you.

Stichera of the Three Holy Hierarchs - Tone 4 podoben: Jako dobl'a

⑥

Let us glo-ri - fy the three great preachers of the Trin - i - ty. the in - stru - ments of grace and harps of the Spir - it, re - nowned trum - pets of di - vine preach - ing who thun - dered awe - some won - ders which were re - vealed from on high. John, Ba - sil and Grego - ry made known the glo - ry of God to the ends of the earth.

Cantor:

My soul is waiting for the Lord. I count on his word.

(on 5)

My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak.

⑤

Let us wor-thi-ly ven-er-ate the de-fend-ers of the Trin-i-ty.
They are the three ap-ostles add-ed to the Twelve. They are riv-ers which overflowed living wa-ters out of E-den. They nour-ish-ed the face of the earth with life-giv-ing di-vine wa-ters.
They are the ba-sic ele-ments of na-ture, fash-ion-ing not cre-a-tion but the true faith.

Cantor:

Let the watchman count on daybreak

(on 4)

and Israel on the Lord.

④

The proph-et spoke of them, say-ing: No one who lives or speaks has not heard their voice, for the fa-mous and ex-cel-lent work of these sub-lime and wise teach - ers has spread through all the earth and sea. By their di - vine laws the ends of the earth are joined to - geth - er and pre-served in the one true faith.

Cantor: Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption,
 (on 3) Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity.

③

Let us, who fol - low their teach - ings, loud - ly sing and praise these instruments of the Ho - ly Spir - - it. They are the true trum-pets and or - a - tors of the Word. Let us pray to them since they find fa - vor with the Lord, that he may grant a strong and last - ing u - ni - ver - sal peace and for-give - - ness to all of us.

Cantor: (Tone 2) Praise the Lord, all you nations, (on 2) acclaim him all you peoples!

Tone 2 samohlasen

②

With what praise - worthy crowns shall we crown the teach - ers, dis - tinct in bod - y but joined together in the Spir - it? They are the God - bear - ing de - fend - ers of the Trin - i - ty, the tri - ad of min - is - ters, the lu - mi - nar - ies who enlighten the world, and pil - lars of the Church. Be - cause they con - quered all, Christ our God merciful - ly gave them crowns of glo - ry.

Cantor: Strong is the love of the Lord for us;
(on 1) he is faithful forever.

①

With what songs of joy shall we crown the God - bear - ing mys - tics and preach - ers?
They were the most out - stand - ing theologians of the true faith: Bas - il
the Great who re - vealed truths a - bout God; the sub - lime theologian Gregory, and John the Gol - den - mouthed. They are fit - ting - ly glorified by the Trin - i - ty, the Lord who grants his great mer - cy.

Cantor: (Tone 6) Glory...

Doxastikon of the Three Holy Hierarchs - Tone 6 samohlasen

Let us ex - tol today those mystical trumpets of the Spir - it, the God - man - tled Fa - thers, who, speak - ing of di - vine things, sang a u - nifying hymn in the midst of the Church: teach - ing that the Trin - i - ty is One, not dif - fer - ing in sub - stance or God - head; re - fut - ing Arius and contending for the true faith; and who always in - ter - cede with the Lord to have mer - - - cy on our souls.

Cantor: (Tone 3) Now and ever...

your serv - ants who in faith and love ex - tol you at all times, and who bow down to your ho - ly and pure birth - giv - ing.
