

Vespers Propers, December 4, 2011
Twenty-ninth Sunday after Pentecost

The holy great martyr Barbara who, it is said, was a virgin and martyr of Nicomedia. (306)

Our venerable father John of Damascus, a priest celebrated for his holiness and learning, He strove diligently by his word and writings in favor of the veneration of Holy Images against the Emperor Leo III, the Isaurian. Having been made a monk in the monastery of St. Sabbas near Jerusalem, he composed sacred hymns and there reposed in the Lord. His body was buried on this day. (749)

Lamplighting Psalms in the Tone of the Week (Tone 4, p. 58), stichera 10-7. Then:

Cantor: (Tone 2) If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, Lord who would survive?
(on 6) But with you is found forgiveness: for this we revere you.

Stichera of the holy great martyr Barbara - Tone 2 samohlasen

When bless - ed Juliana looked over the fright - ful a - re - na, and saw the glo - rious martyr Bar - ba - ra scourged by the whip, her bod - y all cov - ered with var - ied wounds, she cried out with fer - vent tears:
O lov - ing God! O Word of God! make me wor - thy now to share the lot of the faith - ful sheep.

Cantor: My soul is longing for the Lord. I count on his word.
(on 5) My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak.

Ho - ly Bar - bara and Ju - li - a - na u - ni - ted in their de - sire to keep the faith, en - tered in - to com - bat with the En - e - my. They gained vic - to - ry o - ver him, re - ceiv - ing glo - ry in the pres - ence of Christ our God. Now they take a - way the scourge of ill - ness - es, pro - vid - ing a swift heal - ing for all the faith - ful.

Cantor: Let the watchman count on daybreak
(on 4) and Israel on the Lord.

Aposticha doxastikon of our venerable father John of Damascus - Tone 6 samohlasen

Ho - ly fa - ther John, the whole world acknowledges your just la - bors.
By them, you have received the recompense of your la-bors in heav - en.
You de-stroyed the hosts of de - mons and joined the choirs of an - gels whom you had imitated by your pure life. In the bold - ness which you pos-sess be - fore Christ our God, ask peace for our souls.

Cantor: Now and ever... offering of first-fruits on the al - tar of God. Hence-forth, u - nit - ed to the choir of the tru-ly wise vir - gins, you con - template the splen - dor of Christ the Bride - groom.

Cantor: (Tone 8) Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption, (on 3) Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity.

Stichera of our venerable father John of Damascus - Tone 8 samohlasen

In a won-drous way, O wise fa-ther John, you have bright - ened the Church of Christ with your songs, which speak of the things of God. You are another David, striking the harp of the Spir - - - it, at - trac-ting all to God with your sweet mu - sic.

Cantor: Praise the Lord, all you nations, Psalm 116
(on 2) acclaim him all you peoples!

②

O glo - ri - ous fa - ther John, you re - nounced the dis - trac - ting noise of the world and reached a deep calm in Christ. From con - tem - pla - tion and ac - tion, O ho - ly fa - ther, you gained tru - ly splen - did treas - ures which you be - stow up - on the faith - ful by the bright splen - dor of your life.

Cantor: Strong is the love of the Lord for us;
(on 1) he is faithful forever.

Come, O faith - ful, let us cel - e - brate the feast of our ho - ly father John with fer - vent hymns, for he re - flects to us the brilliance of the light of God.
O Lord, how great is your good - ness and kind - ness, re - flected in your saints, through which we come to glo - ri - fy you.

Cantor: (Tone 6) Glory...

Doxastikon of the holy great martyr Barbara - Tone 6

Leav - ing your home - land, your family and your pos - ses - sions, you renounced the love of your pa - gan fa - ther, be - com - ing the bride of the God whom you loved. You found the pearl of great price, like the mer - chant did of old.
In - ter - cede with God that he might save our souls.

Cantor: (Tone 4) Now and ever...
