

Vesper propers, July 20

THE HOLY AND GLORIOUS PROPHET ELIJAH the Tishbite, who was a prophet of the Lord in the days of Ahab, the king of Israel and defended the rights of the one God against the unfaithful people with such a strength of spirit that he prefigured not only John the Baptist but even Christ himself. Written prophecies do not remain, but his memory is faithfully kept, especially on Mount Carmel.

Psalm 140, Tone 1 (begins on page 24)

Bring my soul out of this prison
and then I shall praise your name.

Around me the just will assemble
because of your goodness to me.

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord;
Lord hear my voice!

Let your ears be attentive
to the voice of my pleading.

Cantor: If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, Lord, who would survive?
(on 6) But with you is found forgiveness: for this we revere you.

 you re - proved the king and put the priests to death; you com - mand - ed for the widow by means of a lit - tle oil and a small hand - ful of meal;

 you res - ur - rect - ed her son by your prayer; you ig - nit - ed the fire in wa - ter; you crossed o - ver the currents of the Jor - dan on foot.

Tone 4 Bolhar

①

You are a par-tak-er, O bless-ed Proph-et, of the in-cor-rupt-i-ble com-pa-ny of God my Sav-ior. Hav-ing di-vid-ed the Jor-dan by pray'r, you crossed o-ver on dry ground.
Af-ter leav-ing a two-fold grace for E-li-sha,
you were tak-en up in-to heav-en on a fier-y char-i-ot.
There-fore we be-seech you, al-though you were tak-en
up from us in the flesh, do not sep-a-rate your-self from us in spir-it, and al-ways pray to Christ that our souls may be saved.

Cantor: (Tone 6) Glory...

Hav-ing been illuminated by a bril - liant mind, E - li - jah, the awe-some proph - et, was heav-enly in his ac - tions. He be-came indignant when he saw the unjust judgment of the in - fam-ous king. There-fore, by God's judgment, E - li - jah de-nounced him. Like - wise, he delivered to God's judgment the unmerciful queen who loved e - vil. Now, O Christ, as the mer - ci - ful One, we ask you to save us by the prayers of E - li - jah, your proph - - et.
