Divine Liturgy, December 24
SATURDAY BEFORE THE NATIVITY

The holy great martyr Eugenia. Her father was Eparch of All Egypt. Eugenia ministered to the Christians who had been forced to flee the city of Alexandria due to persecution, and was then baptized. She assumed men’s clothing and lived in a monastery. She was betrayed to the Eparch, who then found his daughter (thought by him to be dead). He was converted to the Faith. They moved back to Rome, where she was beheaded on December 25. (262)
