

Divine Liturgy, July 4 Independence Day

Troparion - Tone 6

O Fath - er of all na - tions and Lord of the un - i - verse, may we al - ways show ourselves to be a ho - ly peo - ple, trust - ing in You, our God, and ful - fil - ling Your will. Since You have bestowed on us this her - it - age of Your boun - ties, may we e - ver wor - ship You, and make our nation a place of freedom, equality, and jus - tice for all.

Cantor

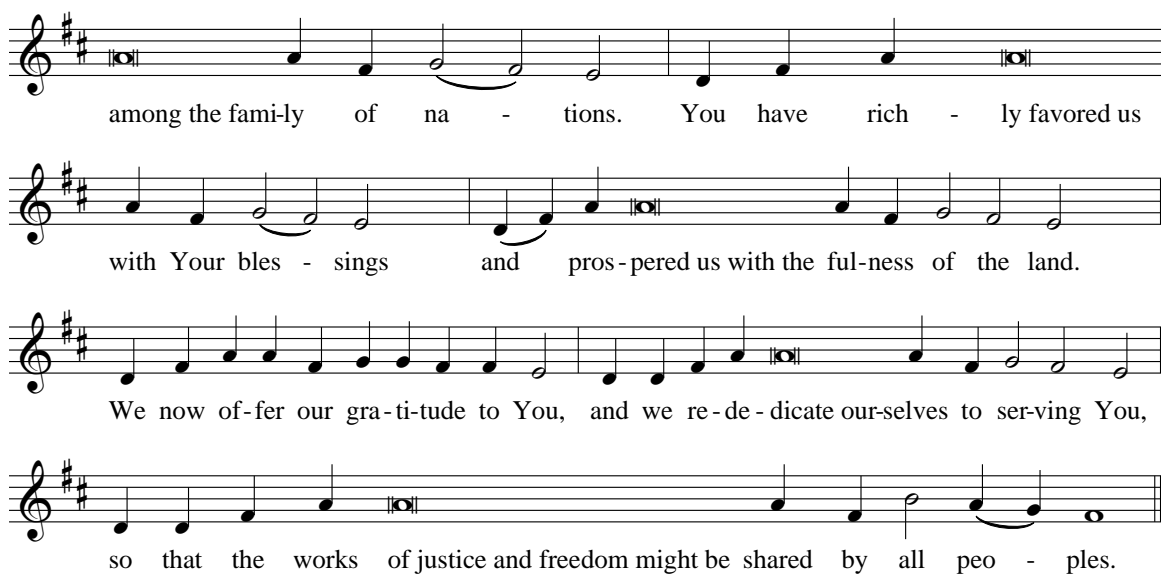

Glo - ry to the Fa - ther, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spir - it.

Kontakion - Tone 6

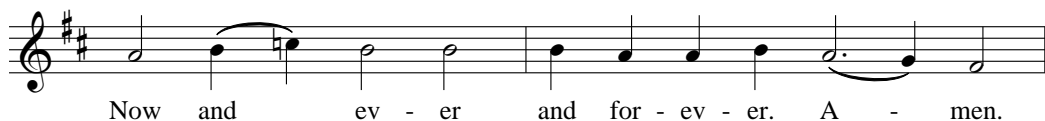

O Lord, two hun - dred years a - go, our coun - try claimed its place among the fami-ly of na - tions. You have rich - ly favored us with Your bles - sings and pros-pered us with the ful-ness of the land.

 We now of-fer our gra-ti-tude to You, and we re-de-dicate our-selves to ser-ving You, so that the works of justice and freedom might be shared by all peo - ples.

Cantor

Now and ev - er and for - ev - er. A - men.

Theotokion - Tone 8

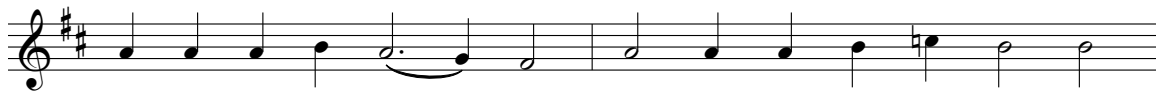

Our found - ing fathers es-tab - lished this na - tion with an a - bid - ing trust in God our hea-ven - ly Fa - ther, gi-ving lib - ber - ty to all its in-hab - i-tants.
 We have be - come the stewards of this cher-ished her - i - tage. Deem us wor - thy,

O Theoto-kos, Ev-ver-Vir-gin, to pro-tect and transmit this treas-ured in-her-i-tance.

Lead us to your Son, Christ our God, so that He would bestow on us

His e-ter-nal free-dom, grant-ing us His great mer-cy and lead-ing us into the land of right-eous-ness.
