Introduction

Christ is risen!

This booklet, containing the Divine Liturgy of our holy father John Chrysostom, is intended for use during the entire season of Pascha.

Because there are two different usages during that season, this book is consistent by presenting any “options” in the following way.

OPTION ONE: to be used on Pascha itself and through Bright Saturday inclusive.

OPTION TWO: to be used from Thomas Sunday through the Leavetaking of Pascha inclusive (that is, until the Wednesday before Ascension Thursday).

All parishioners are reminded that, during the time between Pascha and Pentecost (also known as the Great Fifty Days), there is NO KNEELING, either for private prayer or during the Divine Liturgy.

(Twice)

Christ is ris-en from the dead! By death he tram-pled death; and to those in the tombs he grant-ed life. And to us he grant-ed life e - ter - nal.

Let us bow be - fore his resur-rec - tion on the third day!

On more festive liturgical occasions, the deacon or celebrant, facing the faithful, intones the chant for long life:

To (Name/s), grant, O Lord, many years.

God grant ^{him}her _{them} man - y years, God grant ^{him}her _{them} man - y years,

God grant ^{him}her _{them} man - y bless - ed years.

Added only after the final intonation for long life:

In health and hap - pi - ness, in health and hap - pi - ness,

God grant ^{him}her _{them} man - y bless - ed years.

Accept me today as a partaker of your mystical supper, O Son of God; for I will not reveal your Mystery to your enemies, nor will I give you a kiss as did Judas, but like the thief I profess you:

Remember me, O Lord, when you come in your kingdom.
Remember me, O Master, when you come in your kingdom.
Remember me, O Holy One, when you come in your kingdom.

May the partaking of your holy Mysteries, O Lord, be not for my judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of soul and body.

O Lord, I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious body, and your life-giving blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and for life everlasting. Amen.

O God, be merciful to me a sinner.
O God, cleanse me of my sins, and have mercy on me.
O Lord, forgive me for I have sinned without number.

the only be-got-ten, born of the Fa-ther be-fore all a - ges. Light from light, true

God from true God, be - got - ten, not made, one in essence with the Fa - ther; through whom all things were made. For us and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, and was in - car - nate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and be - came man. He was cru - ci - fied for us under Pon tius Pi - late, and suf - fered, and was

And in the Ho - ly Spirit, the Lord, the Creator of Life, who proceeds from the Fa - ther -

To - geth - er with the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glo - ri - fied; he spoke through the proph - ets. In one, ho - ly, catholic, and a po - stol - ic Church.
