

Then keep your tongue from evil
and your lips from speaking deceit.

Turn aside from evil and do good;
seek and strive after peace.

The Lord turns his face against the wicked to destroy their remembrance from the earth.

The Lord turns his eyes to the just and his ears to their appeal.

The just cried out and the Lord heard them,
and rescued them from all their distress.

The Lord is close to the broken-hearted;
those whose spirit is crushed he will save.

Many are the trials of the just,
but from them all the Lord will rescue them.

He will keep guard over all their bones,
not one of their bones shall be broken.

Evil brings death to the wicked;
those who hate the good are doomed.

The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants.
Those who hide in him shall not be condemned.

Psalm 33

I will bless the Lord at all times,
his praise always on my lips;

in the Lord my soul shall make its boast.
The humble shall hear and be glad.

Glorify the Lord with me.
Together let us praise his name.

I sought the Lord and he answered me;
from all my terrors he set me free.

Look towards him and be radiant;
let your faces not be abashed.

This poor man called, the Lord heard him
and rescued him from all his distress.

The angel of the Lord is encamped,
around those who revere him, to rescue them.

Taste and see that the Lord is good.
He is happy who seeks refuge in him.

Revere the Lord, you his saints.
They lack nothing, those who revere him.

Strong lions suffer want and go hungry
but those who seek the Lord lack no blessing.

Come, children, and hear me that I may teach you the fear of the Lord.

Who is he who longs for life and many days,
to enjoy his prosperity?

mind, and the recollection of my scattered thoughts. Make me worthy, even until my last breath, to receive the most pure and sanctifying mysteries without condemnation for the healing of my soul and body. Give me tears of repentance and confession that I may praise and glorify you all the days of my life; for you and blessed and glorified forever. Amen.

5. Another Prayer

O Lord Jesus Christ our God, may your holy body bring me everlasting life and may your precious blood remit my sins. May this Eucharist give me joy, health and happiness. At your dread second coming, grant that I, a sinner, may stand at the right side of your glory, through the prayers of your most pure Mother and of all the saints. Amen.

Glory to you, our God, glory to you. (Three times)

1. Prayer of Our Holy Father Basil the Great

Lord my God, I thank you; for you have not rejected me, a sinner, but have made me worthy to be a partaker of your holy mysteries. I thank you for allowing me, unworthy as I am, to be a partaker of your most pure and heavenly gifts. O Lord who love us all, you died and rose for our sake; and you have given us these awesome and life-creating mysteries for the benefit and sanctification of our souls and bodies. Grant that they may bring about the healing of my soul and body; the defeat of every enemy; the enlightenment of the eyes of my heart; the calming of my thoughts and emotions; a faith that cannot be confounded; a love that does not pretend; a wisdom that overflows; the full observance of your commandments; the increase of your divine grace; and citizenship in your kingdom.

Being preserved in your holiness by them, I will remember your love at all times. I will live no longer for myself, but for you, my Lord and Benefactor. Thus, having spent my earthly life in the hope of life without end, I will attain eternal rest where the sound of rejoicing never ceases, where the delight of those who gaze upon the beauty of your face cannot be expressed.

For you, Christ our God, are our true desire, and the inexpressible joy of those who love you; and all creation glorifies you forever. Amen.

2. Prayer of Our Venerable Father John Damascene

God, my God, all-consuming invisible fire, you make your angels flaming fire. In your inexpressible love, you have condescended to give me your divine flesh. You have allowed me to partake of your divinity by possessing your most pure body and precious blood. May they penetrate my entire body and spirit and all my bones. May they burn away my sins, enlighten my soul, and brighten my understanding. May they sanctify me, make a dwelling-place in me so that I too may be in you forever, with your blessed Father, and your all-holy Spirit, through the prayers of your most pure Mother and all your saints. Amen.

3. Prayer of Our Holy Father John Chrysostom

Christ our God, mystically you have made me worthy to be a partaker of your most pure body and precious blood. I praise, bless and worship you; I glorify you and extol your salvation, O Lord, now and ever and forever. Amen.

4. Prayer to the Most Holy Theotokos

Most holy Lady, Theotokos, light of my darkened soul; my hope, my protection, my refuge, my comfort, and my joy: I thank you for enabling me, unworthy as I am, to be a partaker of the most pure body and precious blood of your Son.

You gave birth to the true Light; enlighten the eyes of my heart. You bore the source of immortality; give life to me who am dead in sin. O compassionate and loving Mother of the merciful God, have mercy on me; grant me compunction and contrition of heart, humility of

5. Prayer of Our Holy Father John Chrysostom

O God, absolve, remit, and forgive the transgressions I have committed in thought, word, or deed, voluntarily and involuntarily. Pardon all my sins, for you are a gracious and loving God. Allow me to receive your holy body and blood for the good of my soul and the healing of my body; through the prayers of your most pure Mother, of the spiritual and holy powers of heaven who serve you in holiness, and of all the saints who have pleased you since time began. Yours is the kingdom and yours is the glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen.

When you approach for holy communion, you may say in your heart:

Behold, I draw near to divine communion, O Creator; let me not be destroyed. For you are fire to consume the unworthy. Then rather cleanse me from all that defiles.

The blood that makes divine, O (wo)man, let it be your fear, let it be your dread. It is fire to consume the unworthy. The divine body makes me a partaker of the divine nature, and likewise feeds me. It makes the spirit divine and wondrously nourishes the mind.

You have ravished my heart with your love, O Christ; your divine care has converted my soul. Yet, consume my sins with celestial fire.

Grant me to delight in you. Let me rejoice and exalt your incarnation and your second coming, O gracious Lord.

How shall I enter, unworthy as I am, into the splendor of your holy place? If I dare to go along into the bridal chamber my clothing will condemn me, for it is not wedding attire, and I will be bound and cast out by the angels. Purify my filthy soul, O Lord, and save me, for you love us all.

Loving Master, Lord Jesus Christ, my God, let not these holy gifts be to my judgment, in that I am unworthy; but rather for the cleansing and hallowing of soul and body and as a pledge of life eternal and the kingdom. For I hold it good to cling to God; to hope in the Lord for my salvation.

FOREWORD

The Divine Liturgy of the Presanctified Gifts consists of Vespers combined with a solemn Holy Communion service. This liturgy gives the faithful an opportunity to receive the Holy Eucharist on weekdays of the Great Fast - the “alitururgical” fasting days on which the Eucharistic Sacrifice is not celebrated.

This edition of the Liturgy of the Presanctified Gifts has been prepared for the use of the faithful of the Byzantine Ruthenian Metropolitan Church of Pittsburgh by the Intereparchial Liturgical Commission and the Intereparchial Music Commission. The text has been translated from the Greek original, compared with the Church Slavonic.

The musical settings are based on the Ruthenian tradition that has been handed down from one generation to the next. In some cases, both the traditional melodies and the shorter, simplified melodies used in earlier American editions of this service are provided.

This book is approved for use in churches of the Byzantine Ruthenian Metropolitan Church sui juris of Pittsburgh, U.S.A.

Most Reverend Basil M. Schott, O.F.M.
Metropolitan of Pittsburgh

Most Reverend William C. Skurla
Bishop of Passaic

LITURGICAL NOTES

A bow is an inclination of the head at the shoulders while making the sign of the cross, without extending the hand to the knees or to the ground.

“To make a great bow or prostration” means to make the sign of the cross, kneel, and then touch the forehead to the floor. Those who cannot make a full prostration may make a profound bow, touching the floor with the fingers and making a sign of the cross on themselves.

It is fitting that all the faithful prepare themselves for the reception of Holy Communion. Prayers of Preparation for Holy Communion are found starting on page 184. These prayers are recommended as a personal preparation.

During the fourth week of the Great Fast, following the Sunday of the Holy Cross, the cross remains on the tetrapod in the middle of the church. The Typikon prescribes that, on Tuesday through Friday at the Sixth Hour, we sing "We bow to your cross" in place of the troparion of the Prophecy; and on Friday, at the end of the Sixth Hour, all venerate the cross, which is then returned to the holy table.

If desired, this may be done as part of the Liturgy of the Presanctified Gifts instead:

- After the dismissal, "We bow to your cross" is sung (that is, "We bow to your cross, O Lord, and we glorify your holy resurrection", 3 times; Glory, Now and ever, "and we glorify your holy resurrection"; then "We bow to your cross" a final time).

- The priest and faithful may come forward to venerate the cross at the tetrapod. During the veneration, the hymns (stichera) for the veneration of the cross may be sung, as on the Third Sunday of the Great Fast.

- After the Liturgy of the Presanctified Gifts on Friday, the celebrant returns the cross to the holy table, in silence and without ceremony.

perfection in the communion of your Holy Spirit. Give me your body and blood, O Lord, as a provision for the journey to eternal life and for an acceptable defense at your judgment-seat. Do not let them be for my judgment or condemnation. Amen.

4. Prayer of Our Holy Father Simeon the New Theologian

From defiled lips and from a vile heart, an unclean tongue, and a polluted soul, receive this prayer, O Christ. Reject not my words, nor my demeanor, nor my persistence. Allow me, my Christ, to speak boldly of my own desires. Moreover, teach me what you want me to do and say. I have sinned more than the woman in the city who, knowing where you dined, O Christ my Master and God, bought ointment and dared to anoint your feet. As you did not reject her whose heart led her to you, do not despise me, O Word, but allow me also to clasp and embrace your feet and anoint them with a flood of tears, as with a precious ointment. Wash and purify me with your tears, O Word. Forgive my trespasses and grant me pardon. You know the multitude of my evil-doings. You know my wounds and my sores. But you also know my faith. You know what I intend to do and you hear my sighing. No tear is hidden from you, O God, my maker and deliverer. Your eyes behold that which I have not yet done, for in your book is written that which has not yet come to pass. Consider my lowliness. Look upon my affliction and pain. Forgive my every sin, O God of All, that with a pure heart, a fearful mind, and a contrite spirit, I may partake of your undefiled and most holy mysteries that bring divine life to all who eat and drink with a pure heart. For you said, O Master, "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." True in every way is the word of my Lord and God. Partaking of deifying grace, I am no longer alone but with you, my Christ, the Light of the World. Do not allow me to live apart from you, O Giver of Life, who are my breath, my life, my joy, and the salvation of the world. Therefore, I draw near and you see my tears and my contrite soul. I beseech you, deliver me from my sins and grant me to partake without condemnation of your pure and life-creating mysteries, that, according to your word, you may remain in me, as wretched as I am. For, if I am found fallen from your grace, the tempter may deceive me and entice me from your deifying precepts. For this reason, bountiful Lord, I fall down before you and earnestly cry to you: As you accepted the Prodigal Son and the woman in the city when she came to you, so also receive me, prodigal and vile as I am. Now turning to you with contrition, O Savior, I know that no one has sinned against you as I have, nor done the things I have done. Yet I know too that neither the magnitude of the transgression nor the multitude of the sins surpasses the long-suffering patience of my God and his exceeding love for us. In your merciful compassion you cleanse and brighten those who earnestly repent, and you make them partakers of the light and of your divine nature. Strange as it may seem to angels and human reason, you speak to us as if we are true friends. Inspired with boldness, confident of your rich mercy, O Christ, and with both rejoicing and trembling, I who am like grass partake of fire, and, amazingly, I am refreshed and, like the burning bush of old, I am not consumed. Filled with gratitude, I worship, glorify, and magnify you, my God, for you are blessed, now and ever and forever. Amen.

1. Prayer of Our Holy Father Basil the Great

Lord and Master Jesus Christ, my God, source of life and immortality, maker of all things visible and invisible, coeternal Son of the immortal Father, accept the repentance of me, a sinner. Incline your ear and hear my prayer: I have sinned, O Lord, I have sinned before your face, and I am not worthy to lift up my eyes to your glory. I have provoked your goodness; I have transgressed your commandments and disobeyed your statutes. O Lord, be long-suffering with me and show me your mercy. O you who said through the prophet, "I desire not the death of the sinner, but that he may repent and live," show me your love and forgive me. Wherefore, even unworthy of heaven and of earth as I am, I despair not of your salvation. In this life I have wholly yielded myself to sin and have become the slave of the pleasures of this world. I have defiled your image in me and turned my back on your loving kindness. When I consider your infinite compassion, I dare to come back to you, my God and my maker. Receive me, O Christ, as you received the Adulteress; accept me as you accepted the Prodigal Son, the Publican, and the thief on the cross. Take away the heavy burden of my sins, O you who take away the sins of the world. You heal human weaknesses and call to yourself and give rest to those who are weary and heavy-laden.

Cleanse me, O Lord, from every stain of flesh and spirit; teach me to fulfill your will in fear and holiness that, having the witness of a pure conscience, I may receive my share of your holy things and may be united to your body and blood. May I have you to abide in me with the Father and the Holy Spirit. Grant me to receive the bread and wine which are your body and blood until my last breath and, thereby, to receive fellowship with the Holy Spirit as a provision for the journey to eternal life, and as an acceptable defense at your dread judgment-seat. Together with all your saints, may I be a partaker of the good things you have prepared for those who love you, O Lord my God. Amen.

2. Prayer of Our Venerable Father John Damascene

Lord and Master Jesus Christ, my God, who alone have power to absolve from sins, forgive all my transgressions both voluntary and involuntary, committed in word or deed. O loving God, allow me to partake of your divine, glorious, and pure mysteries. Let my sharing in your body and blood be for the cleansing of my sins and the healing of my body and a pledge of the life to come and of your kingdom. You are a merciful God, loving, kind, and full of compassion, and to you I give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen.

3. Prayer of Our Holy Father Basil the Great

I know, O Lord, that if I partake unworthily of your pure body and precious blood, I will be guilty! I will be eating and drinking my own condemnation, not discerning your body and blood. When I consider your loving kindness, O my Christ and my God, I dare come to you who said, "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." Be merciful to me a sinner, O Lord, and do not rebuke me. Deal with me according to your mercy. Let the bread and wine be for the healing of my soul and body, for the enlightenment of my mind, and for the protection of my life. Let them give me confidence in you and love for my brothers and sisters. Let them be for the amendment of my conduct, for perseverance, for increase in virtue, and for

THE DIVINE LITURGY OF THE PRESANCTIFIED GIFTS

The faithful STAND when the celebrant goes to the holy table.

Deacon: Reverend Father, give the blessing!

Celebrant: Blessed is the kingdom of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Response: A - - - men.

Psalm 103, and the verses that precede and follow it, can be sung in the usual psalm tone (given here) or to the Lenten tone. Music for the Lenten tone can be found on page xx.

Come, let us worship our King and God. Come, let us worship Christ, our King and God. Come, let us worship and bow before the only Lord Jesus Christ, the King and our God.

Psalm 103

Bless the Lord, O my soul! Lord my God, how great you are, clothed in majesty and glory,

wrapped in light as in a robe

You stretch out the heavens like a tent.
Above the rains you build your dwelling.
You make the clouds your chariot,
you walk on the wings of the wind;

you make your angels spirits
and your ministers a flaming fire.
You founded the earth on its base,
to stand firm from age to age.

You wrapped it with the ocean like a cloak:
the waters stood higher than the mountains.
At your threat they took to flight;
at the voice of your thunder they fled.

They rose over the mountains and flowed down to the place which you had appointed.
You set limits they might not pass lest they return to cover the earth.

You make springs gush forth in the valleys;
they flow in between the hills.
They give drink to all the beasts of the field;
the wild asses quench their thirst.

On their banks dwell the birds of heaven;
from the branches they sing their song.
From your dwelling you water the hills;
earth drinks its fill of your gift.

You make the grass grow for the cattle and the plants to serve man's needs, that he may bring forth bread from the earth and wine to cheer man's heart;

before all his people,
in the courts of the house of the Lord,
in your midst, O Jerusalem.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,
now and ever and forever. Amen.

Then three times, with a bow each time:

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Glory to you, O God! (Three times)

Lord, have mercy. (Three times)

TROPARIA OF PREPARATION

O Lord, born of the Virgin, do not look upon my sins, but cleanse my heart, and make it a temple for your most pure Body and precious Blood. Do not cast me away from your presence, for you are merciful without limit.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

How can I approach and partake of your holy mysteries, for I am unworthy; and if I come to your wedding feast without the proper garment of worthiness of heart, I would but earn my condemnation. However, you, O Lord, are able to cleanse my soul and call me to the table of salvation. For you are the Lover of us all.

Now and ever and forever. Amen.

O Mother of God, great is the number of my sins, but I hasten to you, seeking salvation; visit my soul in its weakness and pray to your Son our God to grant me the forgiveness of my evil deeds. For you alone are truly blessed.

TROPARION OF GREAT AND HOLY THURSDAY

While the illustrious disciples were enlightened as their feet were washed at the supper, the ungodly Judas, darkened by a sick love of silver, betrayed you – the just judge – to lawless judges. See how a money-hungry man hanged himself because of it; and flee the greedy soul who would do such things to the Teacher. O Lord, so good to everyone, glory to you!

Lord, have mercy. (Forty times)

Such are the men who seek him, seek the face of the God of Jacob.

O gates, lift high your heads;
grow higher, ancient doors.
Let him enter, the king of glory!

Who is the king of glory?
The Lord, the mighty, the valiant,
the Lord, the valiant in war.

O gates, lift high your heads;
grow higher, ancient doors.
Let him enter, the king of glory!

Who is he, the king of glory?
He, the Lord of armies,
he is the king of glory.

PSALM 115

I trusted even when I said:
“I am sorely afflicted,”
and when I said in my alarm:
“No man can be trusted.”

What can I return to the Lord
for all he has given me?
I shall take the chalice of salvation,
and call upon the name of the Lord.

My vows to the Lord I will fulfill
before all his people.
Precious in the eyes of the Lord
is the death of his faithful.

Your servant, Lord, your servant am I;
you have loosened my bonds.
A thanksgiving sacrifice I make;
I shall call on the Lord’s name.

My vows to the Lord I will fulfill

oil, to make his face shine and bread to strengthen man's heart.
The trees of the Lord drink their fill,
the cedars he planted on Lebanon;

there the birds build their nests;
on the treetop the stork has her home.
The goats find a home on the mountains and rabbits hide in the rocks.

You made the moon to mark the months;
the sun knows the time for its setting.
When you spread the darkness it is night
and all the beasts of the forest creep forth.

The young lions roar for their prey
and ask their food from God.
At the rising of the sun they steal away and go to rest in their dens.

Man goes out to his work,
to labor till evening falls.
How many are your works, O Lord!
In wisdom you have made them all.
The earth is full of your riches.

There is the sea, vast and wide,
with its moving swarms past counting,
living things great and small.
The ships are moving there,
and the monsters you made to play with.

All of these look to you
to give them their food in due season.
You give it, they gather it up;
you open your hand, they have their fill.

You hide your face, they are dismayed;
you take back your spirit, they die,
returning to the dust from which they came.
You send forth your spirit, they are created;
and you renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the Lord last forever!
May the Lord rejoice in his works!
He looks on the earth and it trembles;
the mountains send forth smoke at his touch.

I will sing to the Lord all my life,
make music to my God while I live.
May my thoughts be pleasing to him.
I find my joy in the Lord.

Let sinners vanish from the earth and the wicked exist no more.
Bless the Lord, O my soul.

And again:

You made the moon to mark the months;
the sun knows the time for its setting.

How many are your works, O Lord!
In wisdom you have made them all.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,
now and ever and forever. Amen.

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
Glory to you, O God! (twice)

And the third time, with melody:

PSALM 22

The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures
where he gives me repose.

Near restful waters he leads me,
to revive my drooping spirit.
He guides me along the right path;
he is true to his name.

If I should walk in the valley of darkness
no evil would I fear.
You are there with your crook and your staff;
with these you give me comfort.

You have prepared a banquet for me
in the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil;
my cup is overflowing.

Your mercy, O Lord, shall follow me
all the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell forever and ever.

PSALM 23

To the Lord belong the earth and its fullness,
the world and all who dwell in it.
It is he who set it on the seas;
on the waters he made it firm.

Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord?
Who shall stand in his holy place?
The man with clean hands and pure heart,
who desires not worthless things,
who has not sworn so as to deceive his neighbor.

He shall receive blessings from the Lord and reward from the God who saves him.

Prayers of Preparation for Holy Communion

The following prayers are recommended as a personal preparation.

Through the prayers of our holy fathers, O Lord Jesus Christ our God, have mercy on us.
Amen.

Glory to you, our God, glory to you.

Heavenly King, Comforter, Spirit of Truth, everywhere present and filling all things, Treasury of Blessings and Giver of Life, come and dwell within us, cleanse us of all stain, and save our souls, O gracious One.

Holy God, Holy and Mighty, Holy and Immortal, have mercy on us. (Three times)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever. Amen.

Most Holy Trinity, have mercy on us; Lord, cleanse us of our sins; Master, forgive our transgressions; Holy One, come to us and heal our infirmities for your name's sake.

Lord, have mercy. (Three times)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever. Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Amen.

Lord, have mercy. (Twelve times)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever. Amen.

Come, let us worship our King and God.

Come, let us worship Christ, our King and God.

Come, let us worship and bow before the only Lord Jesus Christ the King and our God.

Litany of Peace

The faithful may SIT as the Litany of Peace begins:

Deacon: In peace, let us pray to the Lord.

Response:
① Lord, have mer - cy.

Deacon: For peace from on high and for the salvation of our souls, let us pray to the Lord.

Response:

For peace in the whole world, for the stability of the holy Churches of God, and for the union of all, let us pray to the Lord. ①

For this holy church and for all who enter it with faith, reverence, and fear of God, let us pray to the Lord. ②

For our holy father, (Name), pope of Rome, let us pray to the Lord. ①

For our most reverend metropolitan, (Name), for our God-loving bishop, (Name), for the venerable presbyterate, the diaconate in Christ, and all the clergy and people, let us pray to the Lord. ②

For our government and for all in the service of our country, let us pray to the Lord. ①

For this city, [or: For this holy monastery], for every city, community, and for the faithful living in them, let us pray to the Lord. ②

For favorable weather, for an abundance of the fruits of the earth, and for peaceful times, let us pray to the Lord. ①

For those who travel by sea, air, and land, for the sick, the suffering, the captive and for their salvation, let us pray to the Lord. ②

Special petitions may be inserted here.

That we be delivered from all affliction, wrath, and need, let us pray to the Lord. ①

Protect us, save us, have mercy on us, and preserve us, O God, by your grace. ②

Deacon: Commemorating our most holy, most pure, most blessed and glorious Lady, the Theotokos and ever-Virgin Mary with all the saints, let us commit ourselves and one another, and our whole life to Christ our God.

Response:
To you, O Lord.

The celebrant prays, concluding:

Celebrant: For to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, is due all glory, honor, and worship, now and ever and forever.

The Lord is your guard and your shade;
at your right side he stands.
By day the sun shall not smite you nor the moon in the night.

The Lord will guard you from evil,
he will guard your soul.
The Lord will guard your going and coming both now and forever.

Psalm 121

I rejoiced when I heard them say:
“Let us go to God’s house.”
And now our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem.

Jerusalem is built as a city strongly compact.
It is there that the tribes go up,
the tribes of the Lord.

For Israel’s law it is,
there to praise the Lord’s name.
There were set the thrones of judgment of the house of David.

For the peace of Jerusalem pray:
“Peace be to your homes!
May peace reign in your walls,
in your palaces, peace!”

For love of my brethren and friends
I say: “Peace upon you.”
For love of the house of the Lord
I will ask for your good.

Psalm 122

To you have I lifted up my eyes,
you who dwell in the heavens;
my eyes, like the eyes of slaves
on the hand of their lords.

Like the eyes of a servant
on the hand of her mistress,
so our eyes are on the Lord our God
till he show us his mercy.

Have mercy on us, Lord, have mercy.
We are filled with contempt.
Indeed all too full is our soul with the scorn of the rich,
with the proud man's disdain.

Psalm 123

“If the Lord had not been on our side,”
this is Israel's song.

“If the Lord had not been on our side
when men rose up against us,

then would they have swallowed us alive
when their anger was kindled.

Then would the waters have engulfed us,
the torrent gone over us;

over our head would have swept the raging waters.”

Blessed be the Lord
who did not give us a prey to their teeth!

Antiphonal Psalms for Tuesdays and Fridays

Psalm 124

Those who put their trust in the Lord are like Mount Zion, that cannot be shaken, that stands forever.
Jerusalem! The mountains surround her,
so the Lord surrounds his people both now and forever.

For the scepter of the wicked shall not rest over the land of the just for fear that the hands of the just should turn to evil.

Do good, Lord, to those who are good,
to the upright of heart;
but the crooked and those who do evil, drive them away!
On Israel, peace!

Psalm 125

When the Lord delivered Zion from bondage,
it seemed like a dream.
Then was our mouth filled with laughter,
on our lips there were songs.

The heathens themselves said:
“What marvels the Lord worked for them!”
What marvels the Lord worked for us!
Indeed we were glad.

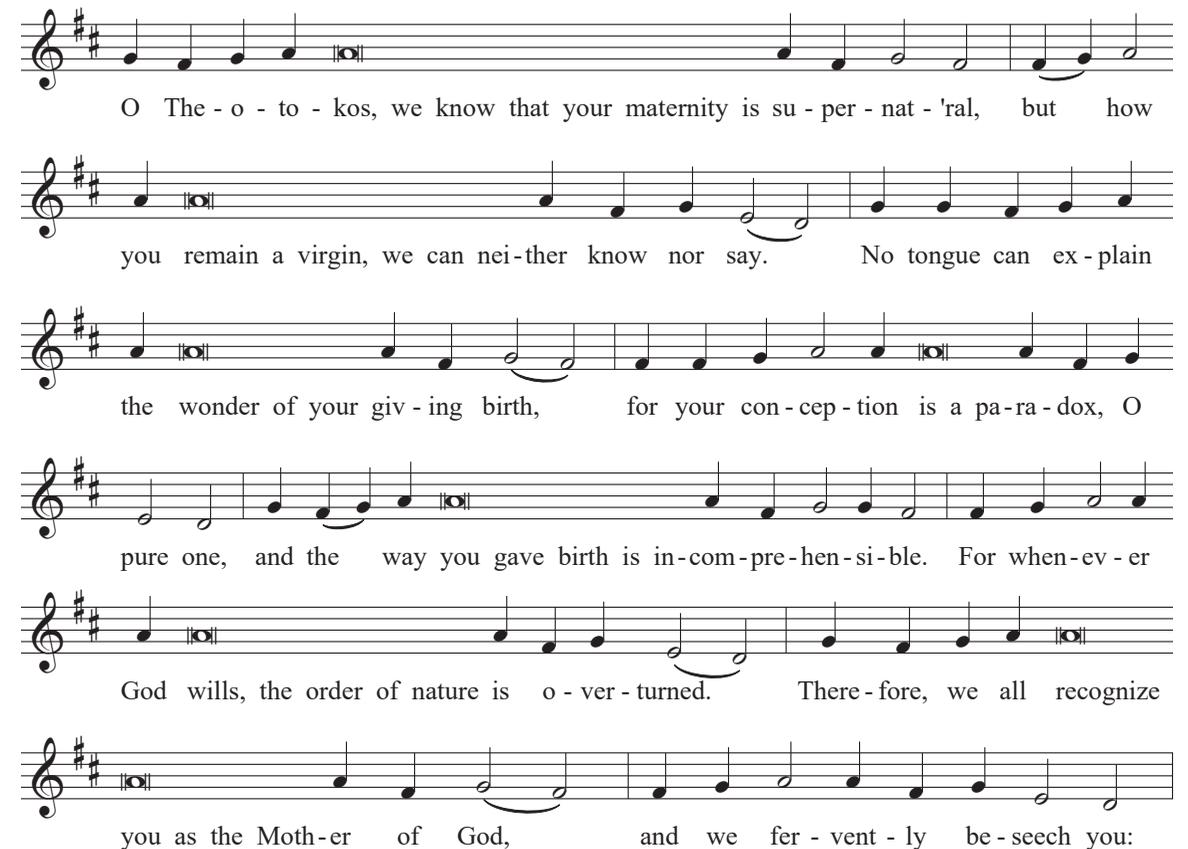

Deliver us, O Lord, from our bondage
as streams in dry land.
Those who are sowing in tears
will sing when they reap.

They go out, they go out, full of tears,
 carrying seed for the sowing:
 they come back, they come back, full of song,
 carrying their sheaves.

Psalm 126

If the Lord does not build the house,
 in vain do its builders labor;
 if the Lord does not watch over the city,
 in vain does the watchman keep vigil.

In vain is your earlier rising,
 your going later to rest,
 you who toil for the bread you eat,
 when he pours gifts on his beloved while they slumber.

Truly sons are a gift from the Lord,
 a blessing, the fruit of the womb.
 Indeed the sons of youth are like arrows in the hand of a warrior.

O the happiness of the man who has filled his quiver with these arrows!
 He will have no cause for shame
 when he disputes with his foes in the gateways.

Psalm 127

O blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways!
 By the labor of your hands you shall eat.
 You will be happy and prosper;

your wife like a fruitful vine
 in the heart of your house;
 your children like shoots of the olive,
 around your table.

Indeed thus shall be blessed the man who fears the Lord.
May the Lord bless you from Zion,
may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem
all the days of your life!

May you see your children's children.
On Israel, peace!

Psalm 128

“They have pressed me hard from my youth,”
this is Israel's song.
“They have pressed me hard from my youth
but could never destroy me.

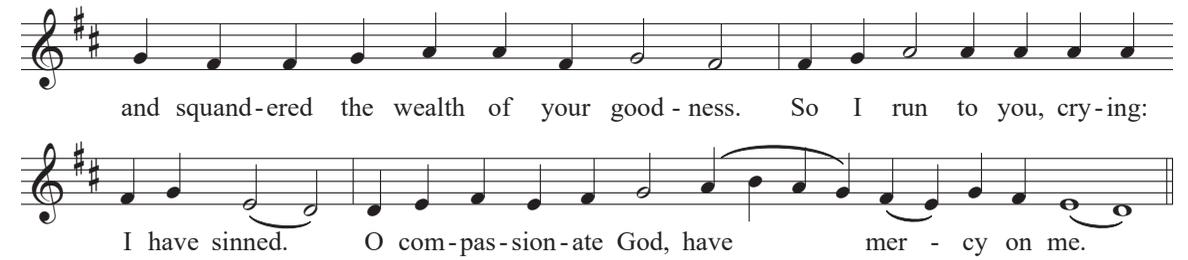

They plowed my back like plowmen,
drawing long furrows.
But the Lord who is just,
has destroyed the yoke of the wicked.”

Let them be shamed and routed,
those who hate Zion!
Let them be like grass on the roof
that withers before it flowers.

With that no reaper fill his arms,
no binder makes his sheaves
and those passing by will not say:
“On you the Lord's blessing!”
“We bless you in the name of the Lord.”

Antiphonal Psalms for Mondays and Thursdays

Psalm 129

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord;
Lord, hear my voice!
Let your ears be attentive
to the voice of my pleading.

If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt,
Lord, who would survive?
But with you is found forgiveness:
for this we revere you.

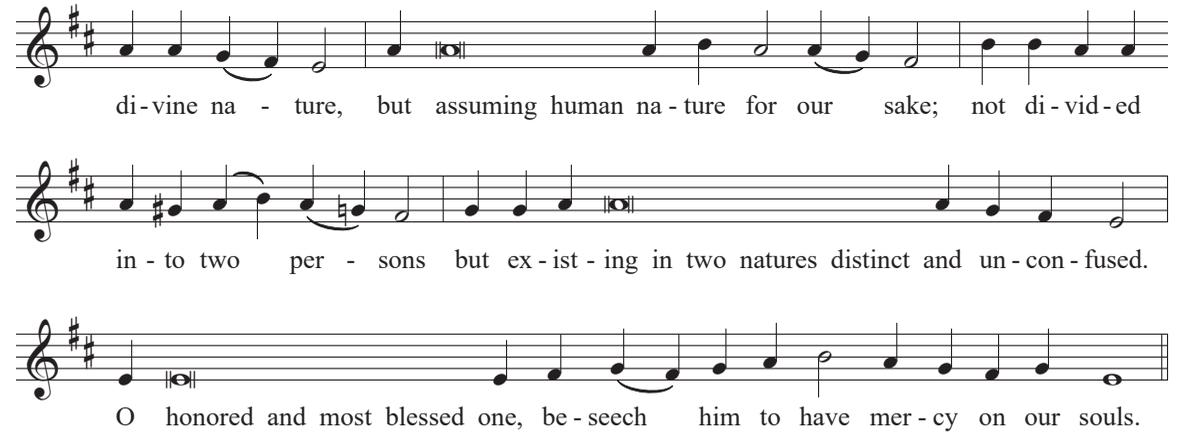

My soul is waiting for the Lord.
I count on his word.
My soul is longing for the Lord
more than watchman for daybreak.

Let the watchman count on daybreak
and Israel on the Lord.
Because with the Lord there is mercy
and fullness of redemption,

Israel indeed he will redeem
from all its iniquity.

Psalm 130

O Lord, my heart is not proud nor haughty my eyes.
I have not gone after things too great nor marvels beyond me.

Truly I have set my soul
in silence and peace.

Psalm 131

Lord, remember David
and all his humility,
how we swore to the Lord
and vowed to the God of Jacob.

“I will not enter the house where I live
nor go to the bed where I rest.
I will give no sleep to my eyes to my eyelids I will give no slumber

till I find a place for the Lord,
a dwelling for the Strong One of Jacob.”
At Ephrata we heard of the ark;
we found it in the plains of Yearim.

“Let us go to the place of his dwelling;
let us go to kneel at his footstool.”
Go up, Lord, to your rest,
you and your holy ark.

Your priests will be clothed with righteousness and your saints will rejoice.
For the sake of David your servant
do not reject your anointed.

The Lord swore a true oath to David;
 he will not go back on his word:
 “A son, the fruit of your body,
 will I set upon your throne.

If they keep my covenant in truth and my laws that I have taught them, their sons also shall rule
 on your throne from age to age.”

For the Lord has chosen Zion;
 he prefers her for his dwelling:
 “This is my resting-place for ever;
 here have I chosen to live.

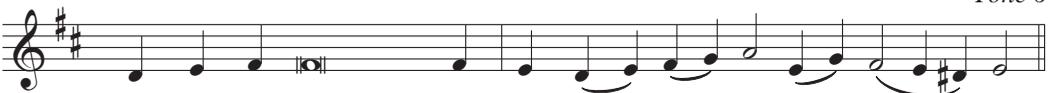

I will greatly bless her produce,
 I will fill her poor with bread.
 I will clothe her priests with salvation and her saints will rejoice.

There David’s stock will flower;
 I will prepare a lamp for my anointed.
 I will cover his enemies with shame
 but on him my crown shall shine.”

Psalm 132

Behold, how good and how pleasant,
 when brothers dwell in unity!
 It is like precious oil upon the head,
 running down upon the beard,

running down upon Aaron’s beard
 to the hem of his garment.
 It is like the dew of Hermon which falls on the heights of Zion.

Cantor:

O Lord, set a guard before my mouth

 If a just man strikes or reproves me it is kindness

 Let my prayer be ever against their malice.

 As a millstone is shattered to pieces on the ground,
 so their bones were strewn at the mouth of the grave.

To you, Lord God, my eyes are turned;
 in you I take refuge; spare my soul!
 From the trap they have laid for me keep me safe;
 keep me from the snares of those who do evil.

Let the wicked fall into the traps they have set while I pursue my way unharmed.

Psalm 141

With all my voice I cry to the Lord,
 with all my voice I entreat the Lord.
 I pour out my trouble before him;
 I tell him all my distress while my spirit faints within me.

But you, O Lord, know my path.
 On the way where I shall walk they have hidden a snare to entrap me.
 Look on my right and see:
 there is no one who takes my part.

I have no means of escape,
not one who cares for my soul.
I cry to you, O Lord.
I have said: "You are my refuge, all I have in the land of the living."

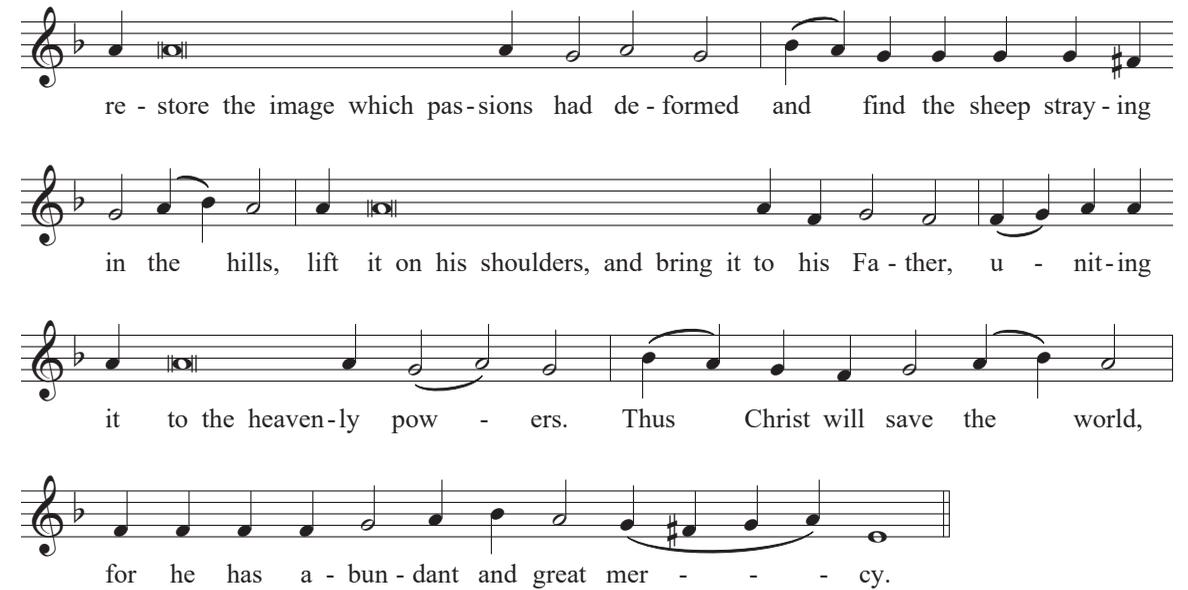

Listen, then, to my cry
for I am in the depths of distress.
Rescue me from those who pursue me
for they are stronger than I.

10. Bring my soul out of this prison and then I shall praise your name.
9. Around me the just will assemble because of your goodness to me.

Psalm 129

8. Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord;
Lord, hear my voice!
7. Let your ears be attentive
to the voice of my pleading.
6. If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, Lord, who would survive?
But with you is found forgiveness: for this we revere you.
5. My soul is waiting for the Lord. I count on his word.
My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak.

Stichera for Monday in the First Week

Tone 3

Cantor:
 Let the watchman count on day-break and Is - ra - el on the Lord.

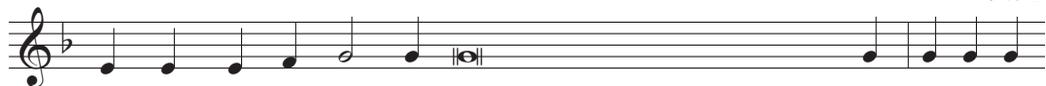

All: ④
 Let us keep an ac - ceptable fast that will please the Lord. A true fast means estrange-ment from e - vils, ab - stinence from an-ger, con - trol of the tongue, giv - ing up the pas - sions, insults, lies, and swear - ing.

 To be deprived of all of these is a true and ac - cept - a - ble fast.

Tone 2

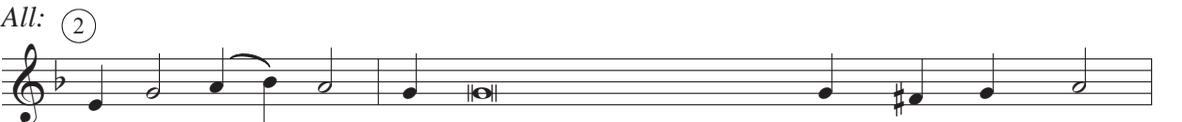

Cantor:
 Be-cause with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemp-tion, Is - ra - el in-deed he will re-deem from all its in - i - qui - ty.

All: ③
 I have com-mit-ted ev - 'ry sort of sin. I am more lost than an - y - one.

Tone 4

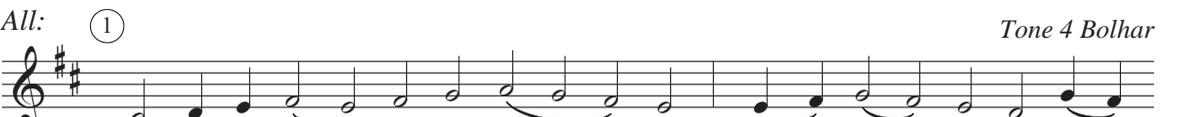

Cantor:
 Praise the Lord, all you na-tions, ac-claim him all you peo - ples!

All: ②
 O Christ our God, you are glorified in the remem-brance of your saints;

 through their in - ter - ces - sion, send down on us great mer - cy.

Tone 4 (transposed)

Cantor:
 Strong is the love of the Lord for us; he is faith-ful for - ev - er.

All: ①
 Where is world - ly at - tach - ment? Where is the al - lure of tem - por - al things? Where is sil - ver, where is gold?

 Where is the mul - ti - tude of serv - ants and of cares? All is

Cantor:

Be - cause with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemp-tion,
Is - rael indeed he will redeem from all its in - i - qui - ty.

All:

I have en-slaved the dignity of my soul to the pas-sions. I have be-come a brute beast. I can no long-er raise my eyes to you, O Most High; but bow-ing low like the publican, I be-seech you, O Christ, cry-ing out: Have mer-cy on me and save me, O God.

Then continue with the Friday stichera in Tone 4, on the next page.

I would not have the tears to shed e-ven if I want-ed to re-pent. But if I con-tin - ue to live in - dif-frent-ly I will be li - a - ble to pun - ish-ment.
But you, O God, who a-lone are good, set me a-right and have mer-cy on me.

Cantor:

Praise the Lord, all you na - tions; ac-claim him all you peo - ples!

All:

On this joy-ful day of the fast grant me show - ers of tears, O Lord.
Let me feel com - punction and wash away the filth of self - in - dul - gence so that I may stand be-fore you pur - i - fied when you come from heav - en to judge all mor - tals as the on - ly just judge, O Lord.

Tone 5

Cantor:

Strong is the love of the Lord for us; he is faith-ful for-ev - er.

All: ①

Come, O faith-ful, let us ea - gerly take up the strong shield of the fast to de - flect the enemy's ev - 'ry e - vil scheme. Let us not be enticed by pas - sion - ate pleas - ures nor fear the fire of temp - ta - tions; for through them Christ who loves us all will re - ward us with crowns for our

Come, you faith-ful, let us do God's works in light; let us walk uprightly

O vic-to - rious martyrs, you did not long for earth-ly pleas - ure; you were made

There-fore, we beg you, O glo-ry of mar-tyrs, in-ter-cede for our souls.

Cantor:

Strong is the love of the Lord for us; he is faith-ful for - ev - er.

Your name shows you to be God's ex-cel-lent gift, O Mar-tyr
 The-o-dore. Af-ter your death, just as in your life, you grant the requests of those who run to you. Once the son of a widow was carried off by pa-gan

Friday Evening Stichera in Tone 1

If it is the Second Friday in the Great Fast, first sing in Tone 4:

Cantor:  Be - cause with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemp-tion,
 Is - rael indeed he will re-deem from all its in - i - qui - ty.

All: <sup>3</sup>  Now is the ac - cept - a - ble time, now is the day of sal - va - tion.
 In the abundance of your mer - cy, look down on my soul and take away the bur - den of my sins; for you a - lone love us all.

If it is the Third Friday in the Great Fast, first sing in Tone 7:

Cantor:  Be - cause with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemp-tion,
 Is - rael indeed he will redeem from all its in - i - qui - ty.

All: <sup>3</sup>  I am as guilt-y as the prod-i-gal, I have turned a - way from your grace

Celebrant: The blessing of the Lord be upon you through his grace and loving kindness, always, now and ever and forever.

Response:
A - - - - men.

Celebrant: Glory to you, O Christ God, our hope, glory to you.

Response:
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spir - it,

Now and ever and for-ev-er. A-men. Lord, have mer-cy. Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mer - cy. Give the bless - ing.

Facing the faithful, the celebrant intones the Prayer of Dismissal:

Celebrant: May Christ our true God... have mercy on us and save us...for Christ is good and loves us all.

Response:
A - - - - men.

The deacon closes the holy doors.

All offer prayers of thanksgiving.

THE END OF THE DIVINE LITURGY OF THE PRESANCTIFIED GIFTS

All:
O a - pos - tles who have seen God, you re - flect the spir - i - tual Sun.

Pray for our soul's en - light-en - ment, de-liv - er us from the gloomy darkness of pas - sions, and intercede that we may see the day of sal - va - tion.

Through your prayers and in - ter - ces - sions, cleanse our hearts, wounded by the e - vil one. Saved by faith, we will al - ways hon - or you; for you have saved the world by your all - wise preach - ing.

Cantor:
Strong is the love of the Lord for us; he is faith - ful for - ev - er.

All:
I am a prod - igital son exiled in an e - vil land, I have squandered horribly the wealth you gave me, O com - pas - sion - ate fa - ther. Now I starve for lack of good deeds. Clothed with the shame of my trans-gres - sion, be-hold me, stripped of grace. So I cry out to you: I have sinned, for I know your good - ness. Re-ceive me mercifully as one of your hired hands, O Christ, through the prayers of the a - pos - - - tles who have loved you.

Cantor:

Glo - ry to the Fa - ther, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spir-it,
now and ev - er and for - ev - er. A - men.

Theotokion - All:

En - vi - ous of your flock, O most pure one, the adversary constant-ly be - sieg - es it, hop - ing to make a meal for him - self;
but you, O The - o - to - kos, de - liv - er us from his clutch - es.

The celebrant prays, concluding:

Celebrant: For you are our sanctification, and we give glory to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Response:

A - - - - men.

Ambon Prayer

Celebrant: Let us go forth in peace.

Response:

In the name of the Lord.

Deacon: Let us pray to the Lord.

Response:

Lord, have mer - cy.

The celebrant, going before the ambon and facing East, intones the Ambon Prayer.

Response:

A - - - - men.

Blessings and rituals for special occasions may take place here.

Then the faithful sing:

(three times)

Bless - ed be the name of the Lord, now and for - ev - er.

When Holy Communion has been distributed, the celebrant incenses the holy gifts.

Celebrant: Blessed is our God who enlightens and sanctifies us always,
now and ever and forever.

Response:
A - - - - men.

The holy gifts are brought to the table of preparation. The faithful sing:

We give you thanks, O Christ our God, that you have made us shar - ers of the mys-ter-y of your re - demp-tion, your pure bod - y and pre-cious blood, poured forth for the world
un-to the for-give - ness of sins. Al-le-lu-ia! Al-le-lu-ia! Al-le-lu - ia!

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Deacon: Arise! Now that we have received the divine, holy, most pure, immortal, heavenly, life-creating, and awesome mysteries of Christ, let us worthily thank the Lord.

Response:
Lord, have mer - cy.

Stichera for Wednesday in the Fourth Week

Tone 4

Cantor:
 Be - cause with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemp-tion,
 Is - rael indeed he will re-deem from all its in - i - qui - ty.

All:
 The fast which brings bless - ings has now run half its course. It is pleased with the days which have passed and pro-pos-es profit in those still to come. Striv-ing for vir - tue produces e - ven more good deeds. There - fore, let Christ, the giver of all good gifts, be pleased to hear our cry. You fast-ed and en-dured the cross for us; al - low us to partake of your divine Pas - cha blame - less - ly and to pass our lives in peace, prop-erly praising you together with the Fa - ther and the Spir - it.

Deacon: Come to receive!

Response:
 I will bless the Lord at all times,
 at all times. Al - le - lu - ia.

Alternate melody:

 I will bless the Lord at all times. Al - le - lu - ia.

All Catholics who are properly disposed are welcome to receive the Divine Eucharist. Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are ordinarily not permitted to receive the Divine Eucharist.

The body and blood of our Lord are administered on a small spoon. Communicants approach close to the priest or deacon and remain standing.

The communicants say nothing. They open the mouth widely without extending the tongue, and close the mouth only after the spoon has been withdrawn.

The faithful may REMAIN STANDING while others are receiving Holy Communion.

During the communion of the faithful, the communion hymn "Taste and see" is sung; the cantor may alternate verses of Psalm 33 (on page 193) with the faithful's singing of the triple "Alleluia" refrain from the communion hymn.

O God, be merciful to me, a sinner.
 O God, cleanse me of my sins and have mercy on me.
 O Lord, forgive me for I have sinned without number.

With fear and reverence the clergy partake of the holy gifts while the faithful sing the Communion Hymn (Psalm 33:9):

Taste and see that the Lord is good; taste and see that the Lord is good. Al-le - lu - ia! Al-le - lu - ia!
 Al - - - le - lu - ia!

Alternate melody:

Taste and see that the Lord is good, that the Lord is good.
 Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!

If a notable saint is being remembered, a second Communion Hymn may be sung.

Tone 5

Cantor: Praise the Lord, all you na - tions, ac-claim him all you peo - ples!

All: Those who do good deeds in se - cret not boast - ing a - bout them in pub - lic but bear - ing them in their hearts, will re - ceive a spirit - ual re - ward.
 God who sees all se - crets will re - ward them for their self - con - trol.
 Let us com - plete the fast with - out put - ting on a gloom - y face.
 Let us pray in the in - ner room of our soul, cry - ing out in - ces - sant - ly:
 Our Fa - ther who art in heav - en, lead us not into temp - ta - tion, we pray;
 but de - liv - er us from e - - - vil.

Tone 1

Cantor: Strong is the love of the Lord for us; he is faith - ful for - ev - er.

All: ①

Let us all wash our souls in the wa-ters of the Fast and ap-proach the Lord's precious and most hon - 'ra - ble cross. Let us a-dore it faith-ful - ly and draw di - vine en-light-en-ment from it so that we may reap the eternal fruits of sal - va - tion, peace, and great mer - cy.

Cantor: Tone 8

Glo - ry to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spir-it, now and ev - er and for - ev - er. A - men.

Theotokion - All:

To - day, he who is by nature in - ac - cess - i - ble be-comes ac - cess - i - ble to me and suf-fers the passion to free me from pas - sions. The En-light-en-er

COMMUNION

Deacon: Let us be attentive!

Celebrant: Holy presanctified gifts to holy people!

Response:

One is ho - ly, one is Lord, Je - sus Christ, to the glo-ry of God the Fa - ther. A - - - men.

The proper liturgical posture is to stand.

The celebrant breaks the holy lamb into four parts in the form of a cross.

All pray together:

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, the Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first.

Also:

Accept me today as a partaker of your mystical supper, O Son of God, for I will not reveal your mystery to your enemies, nor will I give you a kiss as did Judas, but like the thief I profess you:

Remember me, O Lord, when you come in your kingdom.

Remember me, O Master, when you come in your kingdom.

Remember me, O Holy One, when you come in your kingdom.

May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for my judgment or condemnation, but for the healing of soul and body.

Also:

O Lord, I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious body and your life-giving blood, which I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and for life everlasting. Amen.

temp-ta - tion, but de - liv - er us from e - vil.

Celebrant: For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Response:

A - - - men.

Celebrant: Peace be to all!

Response:

And to your spir - it.

Deacon: Bow your heads to the Lord.

Response:

To you, O Lord.

The celebrant prays, concluding:

Celebrant: Through the grace, the mercies, and the loving-kindness of your only-begotten Son, with whom you are blessed together with your all-holy, good, and life-creating Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Response:

For the pardon and remission of our sins and offenses, let us beseech the Lord. (3)

For what is good and beneficial to our souls and for peace in the world, let us beseech the Lord. (4)

That we spend the rest of our life in peace and repentance, let us beseech the Lord. (3)

For a Christian, painless, unashamed, peaceful end of our life, and for a good account before the fearsome judgement-seat of Christ, let us beseech the Lord. (4)

Deacon: Asking for unity in the faith and for communion of the Holy Spirit, let us commit ourselves and one another and our whole life to Christ our God.

Response:
To you, O Lord.

The celebrant prays, concluding with the introduction to the Lord's Prayer:

Celebrant: And make us worthy, O Master, that we may with confidence and without condemnation dare call you Father, God of heaven, and say:

Our Fa-ther, who art in heav - en, hal - lowed be thy name;

thy king-dom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heav - en.

Angel of Peace Litany

Deacon: Let us complete our evening prayer to the Lord.

Response:
1. Lord, have mer - cy.

Deacon: For the precious and presanctified gifts placed before us, that our God who loves us all may receive them on his holy, heavenly, and mystical altar as an aroma of spiritual fragrance, and send down upon us in return his divine grace and the gift of the Holy Spirit, let us pray.

Response:
2. Lord, have mer - cy.

That we be delivered from all affliction, wrath, and need, let us pray to the Lord. ①

Protect us, save us, have mercy on us, and preserve us, O God, by your grace. ②

Deacon: That this whole evening be perfect, holy, peaceful, and without sin, let us beseech the Lord.

Response:
3. Grant this, O Lord.

Deacon: For an angel of peace, a faithful guide and guardian of our souls and bodies, let us beseech the Lord.

Response:
4. Grant this, O Lord.

Stichera for Wednesday in the Fifth Week (Vigil of the Great Canon)

Tone 8

Cantor:

Let the watchman count on day-break and Is - ra - el on the Lord.

All: ④

I fell in with thiev - ing e - vil thoughts; they stripped my wretched mind and beat me ter - ri - bly. My soul is to - tal - ly wound - ed, and I lay stripped of virtue on the road of life. A priest saw me suffering from in - cur - a - ble wounds but passed by with - out a se - cond glance. Next, a Le - vite came and saw, but he a - void - ed me, re - pulsed by the painful pol - lu - tion of my soul.

But you who chose to take flesh, O Christ our God, not from Sa - ma - ri - a, but from Ma - - - ry, grant me heal - ing in your love, pour - ing out on me your great mer - cy.

Tone 4

Cantor:

Be - cause with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemp-tion,

Is - rael indeed he will re-deem from all its in - i - qui - ty.

All: ③

Like the fool-ish serv - ant I have hidden the talent en-trust - ed to me and bur-ied it in the ground I have been con-demned as use - less,

I no long-er dare to en-treat you. But in your forbearance, take pit-y on me so that e - ven I may cry out to you: Be - fore I am com-plete - ly lost, save me, O Lord.

Cantor:

Praise the Lord, all you na-tions, ac-claim him all you peo - ples!

All: ②

The harlot bathed your pure and pre-cious feet with her tears and called upon all to ap-proach you to be absolved from the charges made a - gainst them.

The clergy and servers go to the table of preparation, and, with the precious and presanctified gifts, make the Great Entrance through the northern door and the holy doors. During the entrance, the faithful remain silent.

When the celebrant enters the holy doors, the faithful STAND and sing:

Let us draw near with faith and love that we may be-come par - tak-ers of life ev - er-last - ing. Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - - - le - lu - ia.

Or simple setting:

Let us draw near with faith and love that we may become partakers of life ev - er - last - ing. Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia,

al - le - lu - ia.

All make three prostrations in silence.

Great Entrance with the Presanctified Gifts

As the clergy pray quietly at the altar and the deacon incenses, the faithful sing the following hymn:

Now the pow - ers, the pow - ers of heav - en are serv-ing with us in-vis-i - bly, for be - hold the King of Glo - ry en - ters, for be-hold the King of Glo-ry en - ters. They es - cort the mys - tic-al sac-ri-fice, al - read-y ac - com - - - plished.

Or simple setting:

Now the pow-ers of heaven are serving with us in-vis - i-bly, for be-hold the King of Glo-ry en - ters. They es-cort the mys-ti-cal sac - ri-fice al - read-y ac-com - plished.

The faithful KNEEL.

O Sav - ior, grant me her faith that e-ven I may say: Be - fore I am
com-plete - ly lost, save me, O Lord.

Cantor: Strong is the love of the Lord for us; he is faith-ful for - ev - er.

All: <sup>①</sup> Out of envy the Prince of E - vil drove the first-crea-ted man from Par - a - dise;

but by say - ing: Re-mem-ber me, the thief on the cross re-gained Par - a - dise.

With faith and fear I also cry to you: Re - mem - ber me. Be - fore I am

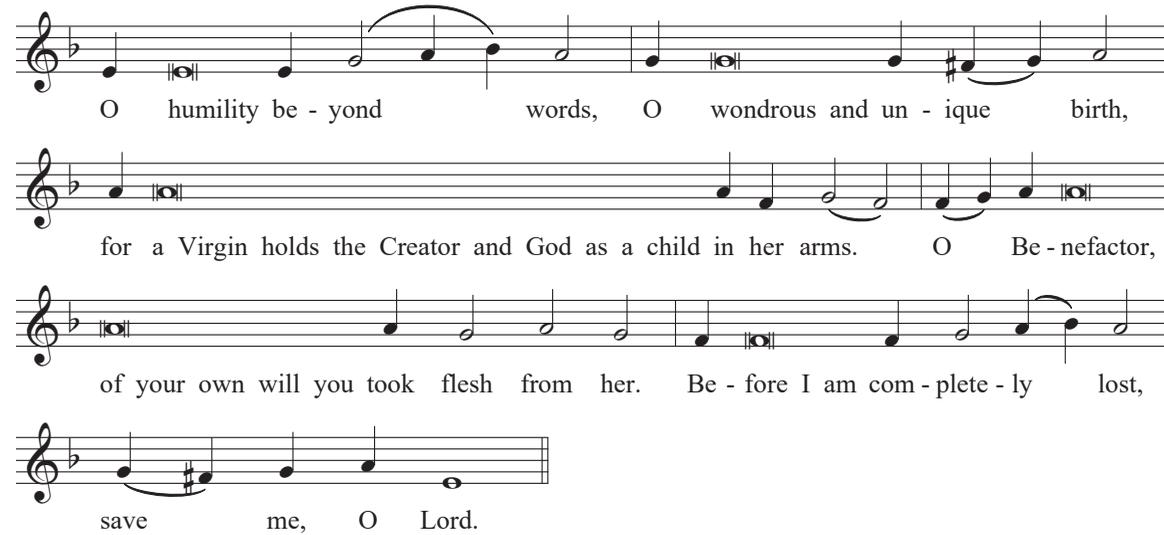

com-plete - ly lost, save me, O Lord.

Cantor: Glo - ry to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spir-it, now and

ev - er and for - ev - er. A - men.

Theotokion - All:

O humility be - yond words, O wondrous and un - ique birth, for a Virgin holds the Creator and God as a child in her arms. O Be - nefactor, of your own will you took flesh from her. Be - fore I am com - plete - ly lost,
save me, O Lord.

Deacon: Those who are about to be enlightened, bow your heads to the Lord.

Those preparing for baptism respond:

Response:

To you, O Lord.

Celebrant:

Reveal your face, O Master, to those who are preparing for holy enlightenment and who desire to cast off the defilement of sin. Illumine their understanding, confirm them in faith, strengthen them in hope, perfect them in love, and show them to be honorable members of your Christ who gave himself as a ransom for our souls.

For you are our enlightenment, and we give glory to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Faithful:

A - - - - men.

Then the following are intoned for the faithful:

Deacon: All you faithful, again and again, in peace let us pray to the Lord.

Faithful:

Lord, have mer - cy.

Deacon: Wisdom!

The celebrant prays, concluding:

Celebrant: Through the gift of your Christ, with whom you are blessed, together with your all-holy, good, and life-creating Spirit, now and ever and forever. Amen.

Faithful:

A - - - - - men.

That with us they also may glorify your most honored and sublime name, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Response:

If there are catechumens preparing for baptism at the forthcoming Pascha, then the following Litany may be intoned beginning on the Wednesday of the Fourth Week of the Great Fast.

Deacon: Those who are about to be enlightened, pray to the Lord.

And those about to be enlightened respond:

Response:

Deacon: Faithful, let us pray for those who are about to be enlightened, that the Lord establish and strengthen them, that he enlighten them with the light of knowledge and goodness, that he make them worthy in due time of the waters of regeneration, of the remission of sins, and of the robe of incorruption that they may be born again of water and the Spirit, and that he grant them the perfection of faith and number them among his holy and chosen flock.

Faithful:

Deacon: Protect them, save them, have mercy on them, and preserve them, O God, by your grace.

Faithful:

Stichera for Thursday in the Fifth Week (Evening after the Great Canon)

Tone 8

Cantor:

All: ③

Tone 1

Cantor:  Praise the Lord, all you na-tions, ac-claim him all you peo - ples!

All: ②  Nailed to the cross, O Lord, you tore up Adam's debt with the di-vine lance. Like-wise, break my bonds, O Word, that I may offer you a sacrifice of praise in joy and faith in this ac-cept - a - ble time of the fast which you have re - vealed for the sal - va - - - tion of all.

Cantor:  Strong is the love of the Lord for us; he is faith - ful for - ev - er.

All: ①  Shin-ing with the ra-di-ance of fast - ing, Mo-ses once be-held the glo-ry of God.

If catechumens are present, the Litany for the Catechumens may be intoned:

Deacon: Catechumens, pray to the Lord.

Catechumens:  Lord, have mer - cy.

Deacon: Faithful, let us pray for the catechumens that the Lord have mercy on them, that he instruct them in the word of truth, that he reveal to them the gospel of righteousness, and that he unite them with his holy, catholic, and apostolic Church.

Faithful:  Lord, have mer - cy.

Deacon: Protect them, save them, have mercy on them, and preserve them, O God, by your grace.

Faithful:  Lord, have mer - cy.

Deacon: Catechumens, bow your heads to the Lord.

Catechumens:  To you, O Lord.

Celebrant: God, our God, Creator and Author of All, you want everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. Look upon your servants, the catechumens and deliver them from the ancient error and from the wiles of the enemy. Call them to eternal life, enlightening their souls and bodies, and numbering them among your spiritual flock, called by your holy name.

Response: Lord, have mercy. (3 times, as before)

Deacon: For the mercy of God, for the kingdom of heaven, and for the remission of (his-her-their) sins, let us beseech Christ, the immortal king and our God.

Response:
Grant this, O Lord.

Deacon: Let us pray to the Lord.

Response:
Lord, have mer - cy.

Celebrant: O God of spirits and of all flesh, you trampled death and broke the power of the devil and granted life to your world. Now grant rest, O Lord, to the soul[s] of your departed servant[s] (Name/s), in a place of light, joy, and peace where there is no pain, sorrow, nor mourning. As a good and loving God, forgive every sin committed by (him-her-them) in word, deed, or thought, since there is no one who lives and does not sin. You alone are without sin; your justice is eternal justice; and your word is truth.

For you, O Christ our God, are the resurrection, the life, and the repose of your departed servant[s] (Name/s), and we give glory to you, with your eternal Father, and your all-holy, good, and

Response:

Stichera for Friday in the Fifth Week
(Vigil of Akathistos Saturday)

Tone 6

Let the watch-man count on day - break and Is - ra - el on the Lord.

I left the Jerusalem of your di - vine com - mands and went down toward the pas - sions of Je - ri - cho, dragged down by the false glo - ry of earth - ly cares.

I fell in with thieving thoughts of e - vil, who stripped off the robe of my a - dop - tion by grace, leav - ing me wound - ed, with - out the breath of life.

A priest came by and ignored me, looking down at my fall; then a Levite avoided me as some - thing un - clean. But you, O Lord, incarnate from the Vir - gin in - ex - pres - si - bly, have poured out your sal - va - tion like oil on my scars, O Christ our God,

Deacon: Again we pray for the people here present who await your great and abundant mercy, for those who show us mercy, and for all Christians of the true faith.

Response: Lord, have mercy. (Three times)

Celebrant: For you are a merciful and loving God, and we give glory to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever.

If appropriate, the Litany for the Deceased is intoned:

Deacon: Have mercy on us, O God, according to your great mercy, we pray you, hear and have mercy.

Deacon: Again we pray for the repose of the soul[s] of the departed servant[s] of God, (Name/s), and that (his-her-their) every transgression, voluntary or involuntary, be forgiven.

Response: Lord, have mercy. (3 times, as before)

Deacon: May the Lord God commit (his-her-their) soul(s) to the place where the just repose.

Litany of Fervent Supplication

The faithful may SIT.

Deacon: Let us all say with our whole soul and with our whole mind, let us say:

Response:

Deacon: O Lord almighty, God of our fathers, we pray you, hear and have mercy.

Response:

Deacon: Have mercy on us, O God, according to your great mercy, we pray you, hear and have mercy.

Response:

Deacon: Again we pray for our holy father (Name), pope of Rome, and for our most reverend metropolitan (Name), for our God-loving bishop (Name); for those who serve and have served in this holy church, for our spiritual fathers, and for all our brothers and sisters in Christ.

Response: Lord, have mercy. (Three times)

Deacon: Again we pray for our government and for all in the service of our country.

Response: Lord, have mercy. (Three times)

The deacon may intone special petitions here.

Cantor:

All:

re - jice, O Restora-tion of Ad - am; the Lord is with you.

Cantor: Praise the Lord, all you na-tions, ac-claim him all you peo - ples!

All: The un - defiled maiden said to the angel-ic com-mand-er: How do you appear to me in hu-man form but speak of su - per - hu - man things? You have said that God will be with me and will o - ver - shad - ow my womb.

Tell me, how am I a spa-cious land? How am I a sanc - ti - fied place?

How shall I conceive the one who is borne up-on the cher - u - bim? Do not de-ceive me, for I am in - no - cent. I have not known the pleasures Celebrant: Peace be to you, reader.

Deacon: Wisdom! Be attentive!

The faithful STAND as the Alleluia is sung.

If it is Holy Week, begin here.

The holy gospel book is incensed along with the faithful.

Deacon: Reverend Father, bless the proclaimer of the Gospel of the holy apostle and evangelist (Name).

Celebrant: May God, through the prayers of the holy, glorious, and illustrious apostle and evangelist (Name), grant that you proclaim the word with great power for the fulfillment of the Gospel of his beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

Deacon: Amen.

Celebrant: Wisdom! Let us stand and listen to the holy Gospel! Peace be to all!

Response: And to your spir - it.
